TWELFTHTIDE

Claire Tandrich

Elaine,
We have had alot of fun past this year! It has gone by so fast.
I am so glad that we have become very good friends. Remember all of the times that we had on the Boces bus. And all of the weird people on it too! I wish we could have known each other better in the earlier years. Remember all of the fun times in Sewing class. (Boring) Make sure that we keep in touch over the summer.
Maybe we will see each other at a bar or something. Take care and Good Luck in future. And Good Luck at doing scumming teeth. (Haha) Have fun in Dental Hygiene. I hope that every thing that you wish for will come true!

water, tides, growth. what better words describe the years of life and love? thus it is that TWELTHTIDE, the title of bishop grimes yearbook originated...

twelve is symbolic of the number of years of education now completed by our graduates. also, it symbolizes the twelve stars that surround the seal which defines it as bishop grimes.

a tide is a symbol of growth. just as a builds slowly, so too, do the students tide recedes, it leaves behind some of on its journey; just as we have with our friends it is a constant

Young Team Hopeful

The 1979 Girls' Cross Country Team, led by Freshman Andrea Kotch, had a very tough season, due to injuries sustained by nearly all team members. However, hopes are high for strong seasons in the future, since they are a very young team, with no seniors and only one junior.

Impressive First Year

The 1979 Girls' soccer team, spurred on by the leadership and hard work of captains Shari Renaud and Cheryl Sutphen, finished their season with a record of 4 wins, 7 losses, and 3 ties. This is extremely impressive for a team in the first year of varsity competition.

Last year, the team was only a participant on the junior varsity level, and this year provided quite a challenge. The girls proved, however, equal to the task. Honors were received by several members of this young team when the end of the season came. Both Shari and Cheryl were named to the first team All - Star team in the Onondaga High School League, determined by a vote of the coaches in the league.

This year provided a good name for a first - year team, as well as great hopes for a strong team in the years to come.

Cobras Stun Homer

Sticky defense, the 12-point scoring of Jerome Preaster, clutch free throws by Vince Antonacci and solid efforts by sophs Tom Bardenett and Jim Griffen added up to the winter's biggest upset in the Onondaga League Central Division basketball league Tuesday night. Final score: Bishop Grimes 50, Homer 46.

Visiting Homer was 9-0 (7-0, OHSL) and third-ranked among the state's small schools, but Grimes parlayed strong defense and balanced scoring to upset the Trojans. Preaster scored 12, Antonacci sank five of seven free throws in the final two minutes and the entire Cobra team played tenacious defense in the manner of Syracuse U. vs. Purdue Sunday. "This was the best game we've played in my two years of coaching at this school," gushed an exultant coach Terry Quigley afterwards.

"BROADWAY FOOTLIGHTS"

Broadway Footlights was a montage of favorite music from old and new Broadway productions. Special thanks go to Marie Felice, Nancy Epoch, and Cathy N. Mucci for their dedication. Broadway Footlights was filmed for a local television show, Toyshop Corporation, and was aired on February 2nd. Elected to carry on the work of the players are: Joe Heithaus, President; Denise McVay, Vice President; Jill Woyciesjes, Treasurer; Erin Reilly, Secretary; and Rhonda McQuade, Social Chairperson. All Bishop Grimes Community Players are optimistic about future productions.

During the year, the Student Council Officers planned many activities for the school. One of the first accomplishments of the Student Council members was a new paint job in the back parking lot of the school. Also in September, members were busy with Freshmen Orientation, Welcome Teachers, and Feeder School Tours. Homecoming Weekend in October featured a dance spotlighted by Alecstar. A Leadership Workshop was held at St. Andrew's Camp in November. Christmas activities filled December. A banquet was held for Senior Citizens and the entire student body helped to build a love chain for Cambodia. Winter Week in February brought the New York Flyers for a dance. The week had special dress days, ski trip, and a basketball game. In March, everyone joined Student Council members in a Teacher Appreciation Week. Square Dancing was a highlight of the week. The Student Council brought the '79 - '80 school year to a close by planning many activities for Grimes Day.

The Varden Portrait

For some people, a diploma is not enough.

Some people feel that there should be more to graduation. More than just a diploma. A timeless commemorative of your graduation is the Varden portrait.

Your Varden portrait will speak with distinction. For over 30 years, the name Varden has meant the ultimate in portraiture. When you graduate, don't settle for less.

O'HAGAN EQUIPMENT CO.

Elaine,

I had to start signing on this page (183) because Mary's mother got it for us. Boy was I surprised when I first saw it. I can't believe all our great times; there are so many good ones I can't decide which was the best. I think the first time we went anywhere was to the Camilus Field Days. You remember that, you got lost with sue and those guys and it took us all night to find you. Then there was Mary's party with that guy who looked like he was dead, "Hey, do you have some matches?" We left with Jim, Adam, and Kevin. That was the first time we went to 57. Remember mike chasing the cat and he had my coat on. That was funny. Or remember at Arby's (I thought it was wendy's) in the bathroom? I'm really sorry I wasted your french fries. I'm really sorry I was wasted. Then at Mary's house with that girl in the bathroom. When you left, I thought I was dead for sure. I remember being sick, but I don't remember any thing after that. The only proof that that happend was that stupid picture that you guys took of me. But that's alright because I stole it and ~~sta~~ threw it away. I felt so stupid. Or remember that night at your house that we got scared out of our skin. I was so scared, I was going to leave. We were so mad, we should have beat up your brother. We'll have to get him back someday. Remember at camp when you were pretending to paddle in the canoe. Or the fish house. Or when Jason was crying so loud you thought he was a duck. Remember at Donna's house when I said yogurt and Jason jumped and then I hit my head. (go to p. 192.)

Oh, well, maybe you can babysit him someday. Or you can sleep over at camp again and fall asleep at 7:00. This time you are sleeping on the floor even if you're the only one there. Alright, you can use a lawn chair. Some hostess you are. You can float on the lake in a boat all day and night. Make sure the air thing doesn't come undone. Remember the time we went to Sunnycrest (the long way). Boy, was that fun. The best was that time we went to Weggies and got some (you know what) and then we went by somebody's house and "accidently" dropped what we bought at Weggies. Some day we'll tell him. We did it. We can tell him the same time we tell you-know-who all about Bam-Bam. won't that be fun? Isn't it funny how Bam-Bam changed (in our minds at least). I can't believe it. We've had so many great times. Like getting out of school and going downtown to see that guy taking his dog for a "walk". "Are you the the United States?" "Are you from Mars?" Just remember, if you get a hot dog from the munchie wagon to watch out for those pigeons. Watch out anyway. Put up your hood or carry a book over your head. But watch out.

An end of an era, a beginning of a new decade; what a great time to have lived, laughed, and loved.

Mary Anne Vaughan

Well we've had a lot of fun since I've known you at the end of freshman year and beginning of sophmore well anyway it's been really great. I'm glad we've stayed friends this long and I hope we will always be friends. Remember all the fun times we had at like at Burger King all the things we did for instance the ketchup and the flying water at Laurie's cousins all the times we went to Uncle Sams and places like that. Remember the time when you didn't get in uncle Sams that was funny as hell when you stop and think about it. I hope you get your license tomorrow cause I want you to take me cruising and well go shopping and do a lot of shit and go a lot of places. I hope the Senior Ball is a real riot cause I can't stand being bored. I'm going to drink before we go so I can be relax and be in a great mood. I hope you and Bob have a good time cause you two get along great when you go out like to the Paradise Saloon. So what do you think of that jag Mike that homely thing you ~~went out with~~ sorry I reminded you I won't mention his name again you know (MIKE). I can't wait till my graduation party its going to be great I hope you going out and still being friends. I hope that we will still be friends after graduation cause I think your a riot and we could have a lot of great fun times. We have to go to see Bob Seger if he comes this year I hope he does it'll be the best concert we ever went to. Well I can't ~~seem~~ think of anything more to write that won't take up your whole year Book so I better stop it. Remember me always ok and call me sometimes too all the remember when's. Remember when the little baseball player (pitcher) got hit with the ball at the park down your street. Or remember at the dive-ins for mad max, and Diviance: what two great movies. Never forget what that girl did in Mad Max to Big Foot (he's a scrungie), Remember all our picnics at Green Lakes. And the one ~~of~~ at Oneida Shores (except for the Money you-know-who borrowed but forgot all about it). We had a water fight with cool-aid too. Ha-Ha. You'll never forget the time we were riding down collingwood... "Do you hear a car coming", "No" ... CRASH!! Or all those "3 Stuges" shows you watched. Or when I brought Bob and Jim w/me to your house the day after you came home from the hospital. Or beakers a drink a scape ____head. or all the times you skipped boces, ~~batt~~ bowling, and sewing for seniors. I can't believe you got a 95 on that Skirt. Elaine, Hey girl, this is Arnold talking to ya. How are ya. "C'mon & go Hawaiian!" fruit punch! What a joke! Remember - "DRIVERS ED!!!" Let's not! Talk about a pain in the royale ass! Well it's over & done with thank god! I'll never forget "our peanut butter & jelly sandwich Drakes" or the "smores" or the pack of "Kent cigs" w/only 3 in them! But we had some good times too! Like the field days & parties (Mary Klappan's)!! Well Elaine, thanks for your great friendship keep in touch after graduation! Thanks again for just being there! a friend forever! (Lucky you!!) Oh - & thanks for the nickname "ARNOLD"! Have a great summer! We'll go out on my Birthday & other times as well! Thanks!

Love ya

Reder (Heff)

Elaine: Boy, three pages to myself, thanks. With all the things I could say I could probably fill a book, but I'll try and condense it as much as I can. You know; You're really terrific. I enjoyed every minute with you though I had my times and my doubts (especially playing cards together). You were really a great addition to my year, this year And I'm glad we did get together though it probably could have happened sooner and would have been even better but I'm happy and I feel I owe you something because you were A big part of that happiness. I shouldn't say were because you still are and you will continue to be. It won't end here, I hope you don't mind. We will still have a great time together over the Summer and beyond, but this Summer is going to be the best and knowing that you are going to be there will make it even better. Now let's see how blue comes out. It's taking me awhile to fill three pages, very strenuous to my brain, can't think that well. How about stepping down memory Lane. Though we don't have to go down very far, we had alot of them. First memory; New York Flyer dance. That was the first time I really Enjoyed your company maybe because I really didn't know you very well. You know, that night Kevin told me "Go out with Elaine." What? I thought he was crazy but it turned out completely different. Now Let's try red again. It would have been a miracle if I got this done in one try. Every body wants some; ooops! sorry! I got distracted. I'm sitting here signing this while I'm cranking Van Halen, sorry. Hm... About all the times we went to 5794. They were Life flash in front of my eyes. I don't blame Lauri for being mad. If I were her I would have just kept backing up until I would have hit the "----er." I'm trying to keep it clean, so I'll just let you figure it out. I hope you can do that. I'll tell you we'll never go out there again. But those were some "pretty awesome" (as Adam would say) times out there. It took me a couple of times before I got the breaking of the Moosehead bottles down packed. But that night, EVERY thing happened. First we get loaded at your house, then go out to 5764, get bombed there, get kicked there, and then I pull the ultimate B.K.#. Tell me I wasn't to embarassed then. Everyone in the parking lot looking at me. Let's not talk about getting sick. Like at the BALL. For some reason I knew I would get sick because I was really looking forward to having a good time. I did have a good time. In fact I had a really great time, until I pulled another one of my great B.K.#'s. I hope you weren't too mad or anything because of it but I was, because I knew I ruined those guys EVENing, or morning what EVER you want to call it. Well, enough of That. I'm glad we found PARAdise Saloon and started going there. We had some "pretty Awesome" times there too. First going to LA Dukes and getting sort of wasted. Playing pool all that time and then finding out how to play for free. And then after LA Dukes hitting the Paradise for a real hot EVENing. I won't have to worry about Kevin's Liscense any more because in a week or so I'll have my own I.D. Won't be great, will it. You're coming to my party didn't you! I'm surprised that my parents are letting me have it though they won't be here, HAHA! Speaking of my parents isn't it funny that my father knows your mother and sister and knew them before we actually knew EACH other very well. Small world. Something funny Just like this happened the other night. One of the fathers of the kids I coach and who also helps Coach, I find out is also from Oswego and knows practically the whole MAROTT race out there. That's where both my parents are from. I wonder ~~how~~ why they came here to ~~Oswego~~ Syracuse, but I'm glad they did otherwise I would have never met you. That picnic at Green Lakes or Willow Bay started out pretty bad but turned into a quite Enjoyable day. It's too bad that Lauri didn't feel too well but she looked O.K. that night. I know how much I actually had and I'll tell you It's probably going to be the most I ever drink in awhile. Do want to know how much or how many I had. Take a guess. Approximately 12, Not counting the one that broke on me or the one I had to pour out when we got busted at Green Lakes.

You know something, you are really a terrific person. You'll be the one that I miss the most when I leave, but it won't be too long. It may seem like forever to get back here And see all the crazy guys again but I hope you don't Change because you are the best. I hope in the future we have a longer "remember when" ~~future~~ list because I can tell it will be full of great memories. Don't forget me. I'll write to you and once in awhile drop you a call. When I write I'll Make sure you'll be Able to write back. Love ya Always. Bob

P.S. Do you happen to have my ~~two~~ twelve dollars on

Laura,

Can ya believe it, our final year! It seems like we where just sitting in Sr Rose's 7th grade class. Remember all the stuff we used to do to her, like shooting pencils under the door, shooting erasers. Even though we haven't been to active in KE but it has been a great time in it. Pledging car washes, back sales, you and Rita at the formal, boy did you 2 look good! Remember Mary's parties, me and you getting stuck with Mike, that one party where Laurie just wasn't feeling too well. And remember camillus field days, to bad you and Pat didn't work out! And I'll never forget your grave for giraffe's. I think when you grow up you'll have one (ha, ha). How about that norwood party, and just the times we walked around Eastwood, Pizza Hut, and especially Roller Skating. How about that time we tried to go sledding and you guys came to my house, and talked only about piggin out. Remember the times I stayed over, esp. the time we told your sister that I was your cousin. Oh, and how about [illegible] for C.P.C.; boy did we ever have fun in that. looking at all the guys. And that one party they had at Andy Zaboiny's (my childhood sweetheart). Well there was so many good times we had, I could go on forever. I will never, ever forget any of them. And since your sticking around Syracuse, we must keep in touch to keep these memories going. Well I want to wish you the best of luck in the future with your Dentistry, and with guys, for you are the next on the list of Trandric's to get married.
